

ANNOUNCEMENT

Indicate Technologies Inc. has acquired most of the assets of Dimensional Control Corporation effective May 9, 2014. This acquisition explicitly excluded all liabilities, and Accounts Receivable.

Indicate Technologies Inc. is a value-added supplier of precision measurement equipment with locations in the Silicon Valley and the Pacific Northwest, serving the high-technology markets of the Western United States since 2004.

Indicate Technologies Inc. is actively working to incorporate Dimensional Control's prior customer base into its daily operations including continuing service and support. Indicate Technologies is in position to service most of that customer base going forward including continuity of product lines and services.

If you have an inquiry relating to service, support, or information regarding a product you acquired from Dimensional Control, or if you are looking to acquire more such product, then Indicate Technologies may be able to assist you.
